- follow activities and maintain working relations with different Council of Europe bodies dealing with issues relating to the abolition of the death penalty (including the Committee of Ministers, the Commissioner for Human Rights, the Committee for the Prevention of Torture and relevant departments of the Council of Europe Secretariat);
- follow activities and maintain working relations with Council of Europe observer states, partners for democracy and other states applying for such status, seeking advice as necessary from international organisations working in the field;
- represent the Committee on behalf of the Assembly when relevant and appropriate;
- in appropriate cases make statements and launch appeals on behalf of the Committee;
- follow up previous resolutions and recommendations of the Assembly on death penalty issues, including Resolution 1807 (2011) on “The death penalty in Council of Europe member and observer states: a violation of human rights”, Resolution 1560 (2007) on “Promotion by Council of Europe member states of an international moratorium on the death penalty”, Recommendation 1760 (2006) on “Position of the Parliamentary Assembly as regards the Council of Europe member and observer states which have not abolished the death penalty”; Recommendation 1627 (2003) and Resolution 1349 (2003) on “Abolition of the death penalty in Council of Europe observer states”, and continue to promote the Assembly’s decisions which appear in these texts.

Activities to date:

14.10.2020: the committee considered a revised information note and agreed to declassify it.

07.12.2021: the committee considered a revised information note, agreed to declassify it and held a hearing with the participation of:

Ms Chiara Sangiorgio, Policy Adviser/Death Penalty, Amnesty International, London, and Mr Gilberto Jeronimo, Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, Permanent Representative of Portugal to the Council of Europe, Strasbourg;

2. General Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders: Ms Thorhildur Sunna Ævarsdóttir (Iceland, SOC) (appointed on 25 January 2022 - first mandate as of 30 January 2022 = expiry of previous Rapporteur’s mandate) – first mandate)

- Term of office: one year renewable

The general rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders is mandated to intervene in matters relating to cases of intimidation of, and reprisals against, human rights defenders as well as of serious impediments to their work in Council of Europe member States (such as, for example, killings, attacks on their physical and psychological integrity, arbitrary arrests, judicial and administrative harassment, public defamation or restrictions to freedom of movement). A ‘human rights defender’ is a person or a group of persons (non-governmental organisation/entity) who, individually or together with others, acts peacefully to promote and protect human rights. This term may refer to lawyers, journalists, NGO activists or other individuals and groups (see, in this connection, the 1999 UN Declaration on the Right and Responsibility of Individuals, Groups and Organs of Society to Promote and Protect Universally Recognized Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms).

The general rapporteur shall report periodically, at least annually, to the committee on information collected and any action taken.

Responsibilities:

The role of the general rapporteur is to:

- follow activities and maintain working relations, when need arises, with different Council of Europe institutions and bodies which deal with (issues relating to) human rights defenders, including the Committee of Ministers, the Commissioner for Human Rights, the Secretary General and the Conference of INGOs;
- follow activities and maintain, when appropriate, working relations with bodies and agencies of the United Nations (including its Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders), the European Union, with the Organisation for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE), other international governmental and non-governmental organisations;
- represent the committee on behalf of the Assembly vis-à-vis any of the above mentioned bodies and groups, when relevant and appropriate;
- in specific cases, make statements and launch appeals on his/her own behalf or propose to do so to the Committee;
- follow up previous resolutions and recommendations of the Assembly on issues related to human rights defenders.

Activities to date:

26.06.2019: the Committee considered an information note, and authorised the General Rapporteur to carry out fact-finding visits to France and Spain and to organise a hearing with up to three experts (both subject to the availability of funds) and authorised the declassification of his information note.

01.10.2019: the committee held a hearing with the participation of:
 - Mr Gerald Staberock, Secretary General, World Organisation Against Torture, Geneva, Switzerland;
 - Ms Emma Sinclair-Webb, senior Türkiye researcher, Europe and Central Asia division, Human Rights Watch, Istanbul, Türkiye;
 - Ms Elena Jiménez, board member, Omnium Cultural, Barcelona, Spain.

15.11.2019: the committee agreed to declassify the minutes of its meeting on 01.10.2019 in the part concerning the above-mentioned hearing.

09.11.2020; the committee agreed to open a forthcoming hearing on the topic, subject to the agreement of the speakers.

22.03.2021: the committee held a hearing with the participation of:
 Ms Mary Lawlor, Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders, Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights,
 Mr Nils Muiznieks, Director for Europe, Amnesty International, former Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights, 14.11.2022: the committee considered and agreed on a revised mandate of the General Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders, to be sent to the Bureau for approval.

3. General Rapporteur for the protection of whistleblowers: Mr Pieter Omtzigt, EPP/CD, the Netherlands, (first appointed on 29.06.2020, (mandate renewed on 27.09.2021)

- Term of office: one year renewable, subject to a maximum of two years.

The General Rapporteur on the protection of whistleblowers is mandated to intervene in matters relating to the protection of whistleblowers in various contexts (Member and observer States, partners for democracy, candidate countries for this status).

A whistleblower is a person reporting illegal activities or abuses of rights that may harm the public interest.

The General Rapporteur shall regularly report to the Committee on the information gathered and the measures taken.

Responsibilities:

The role of the general rapporteur is to:

- monitor, by maintaining working relations with them, the activities of the various Council of Europe bodies responsible for matters relating to the protection of whistleblowers (including the Committee of Ministers, the Commissioner for Human Rights);
- monitor, while maintaining working relations with them, the activities of the various European Union bodies responsible for matters relating to the protection of whistleblowers (including the European Parliament, the European Commission and the European Anti-Fraud Office);
- monitor, by maintaining working relations with them, the activities of observer States, partners for democracy and other States applying for such status, seeking advice as necessary from relevant international organisations in this field;
- dialogue with representatives of civil society (trade unions and employers' associations, specialised non-governmental organisations) and individual whistleblowers;
- represent the committee on behalf of the Assembly in relevant and appropriate situations;
- issue statements and public calls, where appropriate, on behalf of the committee;
- ensure the promotion and follow-up of resolutions and recommendations of the Assembly and the Committee of Ministers on the protection of whistleblowers, in particular:
 - Resolution 1729 \(2010\) and Recommendation 1916 \(2010\) on the protection of whistleblowers;
 - Resolution 1954 \(2013\) and Recommendation 2024 \(2013\) on national security and access to information, in which the Assembly expressed its support for the "Global Principles on National Security and the Right to Information" ("Tshwane Principles");
 - Resolution 2060 \(2015\) and Recommendation 2073 \(2015\) on "Improving the protection of whistleblowers" and
 - Resolution 2300 \(2019\) and Recommendation 2162 \(2019\) on "Improving the protection of whistleblowers all over Europe",
 - and continue to promote the Assembly's decisions contained in these texts.

Mandate update:

- 13.10.2022: the committee agreed to cease having a General Rapporteur for the protection of whistleblowers, and to revise the mandate of the General Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders, to include the protection of whistleblowers;

Appendix: Terms of reference of the Committee and its Sub-Committees

A. General terms of reference applicable to all Assembly committees

(Extract from Appendix to Resolution 1842 (2011), The terms of reference of Parliamentary Assembly committees – Implementation of Resolution 1822 (2011) on the reform of the Parliamentary Assembly, adopted on 7 October 2011)

The Assembly decides to revise the general terms of reference applicable to all its committees as follow:

1. Committees may examine any matter within their specific terms of reference (Rule 43.1 of the Rules of Procedure) and, possibly, table information reports on these matters (Rule 48.6).
2. Committees shall only prepare reports for debate in the Assembly:
 - 2.1. on matters referred to them (Rule 25);
 - 2.2. when so instructed by texts adopted by the Assembly (taking account of Rule 24.1.b);
 - 2.3. when stipulated by the Assembly's Rules of Procedure;
 - 2.4. when mandated to do so by their specific terms of reference;
3. The committees ensure the appropriate follow-up to resolutions and recommendations adopted by the Assembly in the fields covered by their specific terms of reference.
4. Committees may organise conferences and other events on matters within their specific terms of reference and which are linked to their work programme, subject to availability of funds.
5. Committees shall establish and maintain working relations with:
 - 5.1. the competent bodies (committees, etc.) of national parliaments of member States;
 - 5.2. the competent bodies (committees, etc.) of European parliamentary assemblies (European Parliament, Parliamentary Assembly of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe (OSCE), Interparliamentary Assembly of the Commonwealth of Independent States (CEI) and others) and of the Interparliamentary Union (IPU);
 - 5.3. subject to decision by the Bureau of the Assembly, the competent bodies (committees, etc.) of national parliaments holding special guest, observer or partner for democracy status;
 - 5.4. subject to decision by the Bureau of the Assembly, the competent bodies (committees, etc.) of national parliaments of non-member States.
6. Committees shall follow the activities of the Committee of Ministers in the fields covered by their specific terms of reference.
7. Committees shall follow the activities of, and maintain working relations with:
 - 7.1. the relevant rapporteur groups, working groups and liaison committees of the Ministers' Deputies and rapporteurs of the Ministers' Deputies;
 - 7.2. the relevant Council of Europe structures and bodies such as the European Court of Human Rights, the Congress of Local and Regional Authorities of the Council of Europe, the Commissioner for Human Rights, the Council of Europe partial agreements, the Council of Europe monitoring bodies and the relevant Council of Europe expert committees.
8. Committees are entitled to be represented in the Assembly's delegations to the relevant European conferences of specialised ministers and to follow their activities.

9. Committees shall follow the activities of, and maintain working relations with, the European and international organisations and bodies which carry out activities in the fields covered by their specific terms of reference, in particular the European Union, the OSCE, the United Nations and their agencies and institutions.

10. Committees are entitled to develop and maintain working relations with the European and international non-governmental organisations which carry out activities in the fields covered by their specific terms of reference.

11. Committees shall promote the ratification and the implementation by Council of Europe member States of relevant conventions covered by their specific terms of reference.

B. Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights (AS/Jur)

i. Background information

Number of seats: 86

The Committee was established in 1949 with the title “Legal and Administrative Questions” and known from 1956 until the end of 1989 as the “Legal Affairs Committee”, when the title was changed to the “Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights”.

ii. Specific terms of reference

(Extract from Appendix to Resolution 1842 (2011), The terms of reference of Parliamentary Assembly committees – Implementation of Resolution 1822 (2011) on the reform of the Parliamentary Assembly, as amended by Resolution 2002 (2014), § 9.10)²

2. Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights (AS/Jur)

2.1. The Committee shall consider all legal and human rights matters (including proposals for and the preparation of statutory opinions on draft Council of Europe conventions) which fall within the competence of the Council of Europe.

2.2. The Committee shall in particular consider:

2.2.1. all matters concerning the human rights treaties and mechanisms of the Council of Europe, notably the European Convention on Human Rights (ETS No. 5) and its protocols, the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (ETS No. 126), and other international instruments;

2.2.2. other issues concerning the state of human rights and fundamental freedoms and the rule of law in Europe, as well as in the observer States and in the States whose parliaments enjoy observer or partner for democracy status, including allegations of serious human rights violations of a systemic or otherwise widespread nature;

2.2.3. the functioning of national and international judicial institutions (as well as ombudspersons and national human rights institutions), the police, detention centres and prisons in the member States of the Council of Europe;

2.2.4. national and international criminal law and criminology; the treatment of offenders and conditions of detention (including pre-trial detention); alternatives to imprisonment;

2.2.5. legal and human rights issues relating to the fight against terrorism.

² On 26 January 2015 the AS/Jur's Sub-Committee on the election of judges was replaced by a new general Committee on the Election of Judges to the European Court of Human Rights (AS/Cdh): see <http://assembly.coe.int/nw/Committees/as-cdh/as-cdh-main-EN.asp>

2.3. The Committee shall give an opinion on the law, legal practice and the observance of human rights and fundamental freedoms of applicant States for membership of the Council of Europe, and of States whose parliaments seek to acquire partner for democracy status with the Parliamentary Assembly, to assess compliance with Council of Europe standards.

2.4. The Committee shall promote Council of Europe standard-setting legal instruments in the field of respect for human rights, fundamental freedoms and the rule of law in non-member States.

2.5. The Committee shall be in charge of interviewing all candidates for the post of Council of Europe Commissioner for Human Rights, before his or her election by the Assembly. It shall also examine the curricula vitae of candidates to the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment (CPT).

2.6. The Committee shall follow the activities of the European Ombudsmen Conference.

2.7. The Committee shall share the Assembly representation in the European Commission for Democracy through Law (Venice Commission) and in its Council for Democratic Elections.

2.8. The Committee shall represent the Assembly in the Council of Europe Group of States against Corruption (GRECO) and shall participate in the work of the European Commission for the Efficiency of Justice (CEPEJ).

2.9. The Committee shall represent the Assembly in, and follow the work of, the relevant expert committees of the Council of Europe.

C. Terms of reference of the Sub-Committee on Human Rights (AS/Jur/DH)³

(Approved by the Committee on 29 January 2015)

1. The Sub-Committee shall consider any matter falling within the terms of reference of the Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights relating specifically to the state of human rights and fundamental freedoms. In particular, the Sub-Committee shall monitor relevant human rights developments in Council of Europe member, observer and applicant States, as well as States whose parliaments enjoy Partner for Democracy status with the Assembly. It shall also follow activities of and maintain working relations with relevant Council of Europe bodies.

2. Moreover, the Sub-Committee shall review and make recommendations to the Committee on lists of candidates for membership of the European Committee on the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment of Punishment (CPT) submitted by States Parties to the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture.

D. Terms of reference of the Sub-Committee on Artificial Intelligence and Human Rights (AS/Jur/AI)

(Approved by the Committee on 13 December 2018)

1. Having regard to paragraph 2.2.2. of the terms of reference of the Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights, the Sub-Committee shall consider issues relating to the maintenance of Council of Europe standards on human rights and the rule of law – notably those deriving from the European Convention on Human Rights – in connection with the implementation of new technologies, in particular machine learning and other forms of artificial intelligence, including in the fields of privacy, criminal justice and legal liability for actions taken by systems involving artificial intelligence.

2. The Sub-committee shall seek to identify areas in which greater regulation and co-operation at European and international level are required, including by taking account of work undertaken by the national parliaments of member and observer states and those with partnership for democracy status. It shall follow, with a view to contributing where appropriate, Council of Europe work in this area being undertaken at inter-governmental area.

E. Terms of reference of the Sub-Committee on the Implementation of Judgments of the European Court of Human Rights (AS/Jur/CourDH)

(Approved by the Committee on 29 January 2015)

1. Having regard to the terms of reference of the Committee on Legal Affairs and Human Rights, the Sub-Committee shall consider issues relating to the implementation, at the domestic level, of the judgments of the European Court of Human Rights (ECHR) finding a violation of the European Convention on Human Rights and/or its protocols.
2. The Sub-Committee shall, in particular, address the most pertinent cases of non-implementation of judgments, especially those pointing to the existence of systemic shortcomings or requiring urgent individual measures, especially in cases concerning serious human rights violations. It shall seek to identify, together with Committee's Rapporteur on the Implementation of Judgments of the ECHR, the reasons for failure to execute judgments in co-operation with, in particular, the parliamentary national delegation of the State concerned in order to find solutions to outstanding problems.
