The Ad Hoc Sub-Committee for the organisation of the Round Table on the political situation in the Chechen Republic (of the Political Affairs Committee), meeting in Paris on 13 December 2005 with Mr Gross (Switzerland, SOC) in the Chair,

as regards:

- Parliamentary elections in Chechnya (27 November 2005): held an exchange of views on the basis of oral statements of members who had participated in the fact-finding visit to Chechnya on 26-28 November 2005;

- Organisation of the second Round Table on the political situation in the Chechen Republic: held an exchange of views and concluded that:

. the second Round Table should be held in Grozny, under conditions which would provide security and allow broad participation and free exchange of views;

. such conditions were not met for the moment;

. in the framework of the preparation for the Round Table, contacts should be established with the Russian State Duma Commission on problems of Northern Caucasus, as well as with members of the newly elected Parliament of Chechnya;

. members of the ad hoc Sub-Committee could continue, in their private capacity, contacts aimed at broadening the representativity of the Round Table, however, their proposals will be subject to acceptance by the ad hoc Sub-Committee;

- Date and place of the next meeting: left it to the Chair to convene its next meeting.
